

Dear Sister. Have you got to San Bernardino yet? When you get there I wish Okie would call Edna & see if she's been crying & homesick I was going to call her last night but I was afraid she would start crying so thought I'd just better write instead. We are all well - I'm saving so I can go over by the 1st of Sept. the 18th anyway. Be a good girl
I love you. Write to me
